3. Risk of Loss, Eminent Domain. Risk of damage or destruction to the Property by fire or otherwise shall remain with Seller until Closing. If the Property is damaged or destroyed, taken by eminent domain or if condemnation proceedings are commenced, Seller shall immediately provide notice of same to Purchaser and Purchaser may terminate this Agreement by delivery of written notice to Seller, and thereafter, neither party shall have any further liability to the other. If Purchaser does not elect to terminate this Agreement, then there should be credited to the Purchase Price all insurance and condemnation proceeds received by Seller prior to Closing, and Seller shall assign, transfer and set over to Purchaser at the Closing, all of the Seller's right, title and interest in and to any insurance and proceeds thereof for such damage or destruction or condemnation awards that may be made for such taking after the Closing.

4. Inspections and Survey. From the date of this Agreement until Closing, Purchaser and its agents shall have, and Seller hereby grants to Purchaser and its agents and contractors, the right of ingress and egress on, over, through, across, to and from the Property for the purpose of making any inspections, explorations, tests (including but not limited to Phase I and II and other environmental inspections, samplings, drilling, and tests) and examinations of the Property as Purchaser may desire, or engaging in any other property evaluation and assessment activities which Purchaser deems appropriate. If the exact boundaries of the Property established by the Survey should differ from the current legal description contained in the land records, then Seller will convey the Property to Purchaser based on the new Survey.

By entering the Property for this or any other purpose, Purchaser:

Purchaser agrees to reasonably cooperate to facilitate making the interest earned on the Note tax exempt, including the filing of any required forms, statements or disclosures with the Internal Revenue Service, the Virginia Department of Taxation, or any other governmental entity.

Seller shall reimburse the Purchaser for its attorney's fees, accounting fees and any other costs incurred in obtaining advice on the tax exemption issue and in attempting to qualify this Note and interest thereon as tax exempt. If the fees exceed or will exceed $5,000.00 at any time, then the Seller shall have the right to cease efforts to qualify the Note and the interest earned on the Note as tax exempt.

Purchaser shall not be required to use any of Page County, Virginia's tax exempt bond allocation or quota in order to qualify the note as tax exempt.

24. SECTION 1031 EXCHANGE. To the extent permitted by law, provided there is no additional expense or risk to Purchaser, Purchaser and Seller and a third party to be identified by Seller may at Seller's option enter into a transaction intended to qualify for "like-kind" exchange treatment under section 1031 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended (the "Code"). If the Board of Supervisors fails to provide these funds to Purchaser prior to that date, then either party to this Agreement may thereafter cancel this Agreement upon written notice to the other party. Upon deliver of this notice of cancellation, neither party shall have any obligations to the other under this Agreement and this Agreement shall thereafter be deemed void and cancelled.
